

We Were Made for this Moment

In this time of tumult, fear, and hatred, the world needs the gifts that you were born to share.

We Were Made for this Moment is an online course designed to help people who feel called to work for a more just, sustainable, and loving world to do so in ways that are both strategic and spiritually grounded.

The next course will begin Monday June 5 and take place from 7:30 until 9:00pm EST each Monday evening of June.

Led by Eileen Flanagan, board chair of Earth Quaker Action Team (EQAT). Read more and register at <http://eileenflanagan.com/we-were-made-for-this-moment/>
