

Do you want to feel like what you do is actually having an impact on the issues you care about? Would you like to emulate the powerful tactics used by Gandhi & King?

Building a Nonviolent Direct Action Campaign is an online course designed to help people who feel called to adopt bolder tactics during these tumultuous times.

This course will begin Monday April 17 and take place from 7:00 until 9:00pm EST each Monday until May 8.

Led by Eileen Flanagan, board chair of Earth Quaker Action Team (EQAT). Read more and register at <http://eileenflanagan.com/we-were-made-for-this-moment/>
