

19:08:29 From erikamazza : was it a chain?
19:08:33 From Max Heine : a high-profile chain
19:08:37 From Suzanne Cohen : They need customers of all races
19:08:38 From judith b. 350mass : It is emblematic of 'America'
19:08:46 From Gail Stallings : National chain...national coverage
19:08:49 From Dyresha Harris : My guess from my own family history is that lots of black folks shop there
19:08:50 From Dan Bailey : National chain
19:08:50 From Bob Schroeder Juneau : biggish company....needed black shoppers
19:08:50 From Angela Swanger : National Chain
19:08:54 From MARY NEWMAN : It was the five and 10 cent store and they were everywhere.
19:08:55 From Jude Brandt : Popular well-known place. Accessible to many people.
19:08:58 From Lauri Langham : high level exposure and logical need- to be able to eat
19:09:00 From Eileen's iPad : big company
19:09:14 From Chris Palmer, 350PDX : great coffee
19:09:24 From Bruce Pruitt-Hamm : allowed for "copycat" actions
19:10:45 From Dan Bailey : Novagrancy
19:10:46 From MARY NEWMAN : A simple action.
19:10:46 From erikamazza : cheap
19:10:47 From judith b. 350mass : It was obviously symbolic
19:10:54 From Steph - 350 Hamilton : Coffee is affordable and something everyone uses
19:10:54 From rubykirk : Everyone has it all the time
19:10:56 From Angela Swanger : something anyone would do
19:10:56 From Gail Stallings : very American
19:11:08 From Jude Brandt : you can sit and linger over it.
19:11:08 From Eileen's iPad : I'm wondering if employee was black
19:11:26 From Sean Tierney : most of the customers would do that. especially working class
19:18:35 From tAP0o0kix0yjHs/08q70b8h/DWzcyZjw0+FdctVRGe4= : did you see trump's threat against banks that refuse to fund fossil fuels
19:18:42 From Dyresha Harris : Mayor, corporations, workers
19:19:29 From rubykirk : I thought about the fossil fuel industry and its pillars of government bailouts and subsidies, banks, utility companies, automobile industry, and the workers.
19:20:35 From Chris Palmer, 350PDX : some trade unions unions propping up the fossil fuel industry
19:21:24 From Seth : Banking Like Appalachia Matters was based on pillars of support, yes? PNC was a pillar of mountain top removal, which is what folks were ultimately trying to stop.
19:22:55 From judith b. 350mass : So frustrated-The WEymouth Compressor Plant is being built by Enbridge to transport gas through the region to be sold in Eur. No one in this climate justice area wants it. Protests are constant, but the Governor, who we have also targeted, green lighted it. What next?
19:23:00 From Gail Stallings : water/springs, rivers and aquifers:

Oklawaha River and the Rodman Dam that is blocking its flow.

Fishermen, people living on river

19:23:10 From Dyresha Harris : Also, our experience was that writing is on the wall a bit. Lots of potential buyers for the refinery didn't want it because they thought fossil fuels were a bad investment at this point.

19:24:17 From Patrick Grady : It's not that simple when your focus is on a solutions campaign in a smaller relatively conservative community to just say target fossil fuel industry and banks

19:28:38 From Steph - 350 Hamilton : In Canada, several Universities are currently divesting from the fossil fuel industry.

19:29:55 From Dyresha Harris : My friend just had a big divestment win with UCA schools last fall!

19:32:39 From Steph - 350 Hamilton : Awesome. :)

19:35:44 From Dan Bailey : Yay!

19:35:54 From Dyresha Harris : Great work!!

19:35:59 From judith b. 350mass : Lee Raymond, retired CEO of Exxon, is who he is talking about

19:36:45 From Chris Palmer, 350PDX : the Oregon State Treasurer announced today he'll vote against lee raymond!

19:37:03 From Dyresha Harris : Yay!

19:38:06 From Eileen's iPad : another secondary target has been reached - chase has said they wont drill in the arctic

19:40:44 From Dyresha Harris : Question: How do you make a decision between making someone a target or an ally? For example, those who care about their reputations are more "on our side" than those who don't.

19:41:16 From dl : my favorite factoid for helping people understand million / billion / trillion: A million seconds is 12 days.

A billion seconds is 31 years.

A trillion seconds is 31,688 years.

19:42:27 From Bruce Pruitt-Hamm : I think of this "targeting" task as choosing "target constituencies" who control the "pillars of support" (not the powerholders themselves) and strategizing how to use "working constituencies" (supporters) to have an impact on the "target constituency", using the "spectrum of allies" concept.

Communications strategy is aimed at the "target constituency". Is this close to what you are advising?

19:55:17 From Edwina Kadera : Pew taxes?

19:57:48 From Edwina Kadera : Read that the far right is reading Alinsky and using his tactics

19:59:40 From Seth : <https://www.blackrocksbigproblem.com/take-action> - this web page gives guidance for making phone calls and taking other actions to pressure Chase Bank in the lead up to the shareholders meeting. I wish you all the best in all your campaigning.

19:59:42 From iPhoneLouise Neal : how do you choose a target in the military industrial complex

20:10:35 From Edwina Kadera : Also read that projecting the rubbish you are doing onto the opposition is a propaganda tactic.

20:11:19 From corina (she/her) : Manal, are you a writer?

20:12:08 From corina (she/her) : Your questions reflections are clear and insightful.

20:13:31 From Patrick Grady : Interestingly enough, military leaders are and have been actively studying and working on climate change impacts as it affects bases around the world. They get it; but, of course, our President does not. So, it is not general public knowledge.

20:14:22 From Gail Stallings : Its always worthwhile to reach out to people with commonly held progressive non-partisan values.

20:14:31 From Dyresha Harris : I think part of it is also supporting other methods of financial stability for young adults considering military.

20:15:12 From manaleltayar : Thank you Corina - very kind and encouraging words :)

20:16:04 From judith b. 350mass : I, also, didn't know anyone in the military until my son joined the US Marine Corps. Through him, I met many wonderful young people who truly wanted to support this nation. It was kick in my leftist butt.

20:17:28 From Dyresha Harris : Also former military folks who have become activists against war could be great allies to help have those conversations in ways that others can relate to.

20:17:50 From dl : Eileen speaks a lot of Appalachia. I am in WV. We still fight MTR, moved to fracking & pipeline (with NO success other than monitoring) and now and toxic corridor for plastics along the Ohio River Valley. There are labor/jobs v environment issues. Any successes with bridges to labor & "working class" would be helpful because being an enviro is not a door opener here.

20:20:38 From erikamazza : "We live in capitalism. Its power seems inescapable. So did the divine right of kings. Any human power can be resisted and changed by human beings." -Ursula K le Guin

20:21:07 From erikamazza : The Abolish ICE campaign reminds me of this quote!

20:22:36 From Dyresha Harris : Word.

20:27:08 From Eileen Flanagan : https://docs.google.com/document/d/1HUd8F1loJt5HkL0BADc8Zh-sNaBQ\_bYbihsnLohi3QU/edit?usp=sharing

20:44:30 From Dielle : I got booted out & not put into a small group but that's fine. Just logged back in.

20:45:31 From Bob Schroeder Juneau : getting people out of prison during covid is a great action

20:50:55 From Edwina Kadera : Excellent point about the common good. Neoliberal neocon thinking does not even acknowledge the existence of the common good. Margaret Thatcher quote: "There is no such thing as society."

20:51:29 From corina (she/her) : A mother's day action was raising money to bail out women from prison

20:51:34 From Patrick Grady to Eileen Flanagan (Privately) : just a quick note

20:52:51 From Dyresha Harris : I think if you were to make workplaces safe for the people working there, it would already go a long way toward making it eco friendly.

20:53:00 From Patrick Grady to Eileen Flanagan (Privately) : just a quick note, we seem to be focused on regional and national justice issues but not in local communities; more of that discussion might be helpful to some of us

20:54:23 From Dyresha Harris : "Strangers in their Own Land" has some interesting info about narratives of conservative folks around environment. Was helpful for me in understanding.

20:55:48 From Edwina Kadera : What was the third role again?

20:56:37 From Marsha (she/her) Portland, OR : helper, advocate, organizer, rebel

20:57:47 From margo : thanks for asking that!

20:58:21 From Brad Laird, he/him, South Bend, IN : You may share my data without reservation.

20:58:35 From Bruce Pruitt-Hamm : Do the 4 roles you've identified share characteristics with the 4 roles in Bill Moyer's Movement Action Plan? Or separate?

20:59:17 From Brad Laird, he/him, South Bend, IN : Megarid@yahoo.com

21:00:09 From Dan Bailey : Thank you all. See you next week. Looking forward to the email with homework

21:01:13 From Edwina Kadera : Radicalization process?

21:01:19 From Bruce Pruitt-Hamm : Thank you so much!!

21:01:33 From rubykirk : Thank you!!

21:01:43 From Edwina Kadera : Bye

21:03:55 From kat black to Eileen Flanagan (Privately) : Hi Eileen! I am from 350 in Portland – didn't know there were so many portlanders in the course here!Chris had to leave early tonight, but I know we'd love to hear if any other PDXers here let you know that they're looking for an organizational home.

21:04:26 From Lauri Langham : thanks!

21:05:22 From Eileen Flanagan to Steph – 350 Hamilton (Privately) : Can you unmute yourself?
